Answer

MINISTER OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI M.VENKAIAH NAIDU)

(a) The schemes being implemented by the Ministry of Rural Development for the benefit of persons Below Poverty Line (BPL) including unemployed youths in the rural areas are:

(i) The Swarnjayanti Gram Swarozgar Yojana (SGSY), a scheme for self-employment of the rural poor.

(ii) Employment Assurance Scheme (EAS), a scheme for wage employment.

(iii) Jawahar Gram Samridhi Yojana (JGSY), a scheme for Infrastructure Development at the village level.

The EAS & the JGSY have since been merged and a new scheme namely the Sampoorna Grameen Rozgar Yojana (SGRY), for the wage employment of the rural poor has been launched w.e.f. 25.9.2001. During the current financial year i.e.2001-2002 JGSY and EAS will continue as part of SGRY, with which, these schemes would stand fully integrated from the next financial year (2002-2003) onwards. The requisite funds and adequate quantities of food grains on account of the new scheme have been provided, this year, in the EAS and JGSY.

(b) Benefits accruing to unemployed youths under the scheme are not monitored separately.

(c) The scheme-wise Central allocation during 2001-02 is given in the statement at Annexure-I.
